This story is about how my family came to the USA back in the good old days. It is also about how my family got from Ireland to England all because of just one of my family members.

My family originates from Ireland they lived there for a few generations then one of my relatives got in a lot of trouble and my family got kicked out of Ireland so they packed up and moved to England to live there for a few generations and in one of those generations we had a pirate for a relative his pirate name was captain black beard. Then when columbus discovered america I guess they got a bug up there butt to move to America. Then my family grew and grew then my great great great great great great great great Grandma met my great great great great great great great great Grandpa and had my great great great great great great great Grandma who met my great great great great great great great Grandpa who had my great great great great great great Grandpa who met my great great great great great Grandma who had my great great great great great Grandpa then they had my great great great great Grandpa then he met my great great great great Grandma and so on and so on.
