Riesel, Ruth. * Castle Dale, Utah. Personal Interview.
Castle Dale, Utah. 8 April 1995.

I choose to interview my grandma because I thought this story was interesting, and my grandma is a interesting person. She is interesting because she is always responsible.

I was standing on the haystack with my little sister Leona she was acting stuck up, and I was getting sick of it.

"Your stupid Leona," I blurted out.

"Oh, Be quiet Ruth or else."

"I am going to tell dad what you are doing."

"I'm not doing nothing, you were the one that was being rude in the first place."

"Dad is going to believe me because I'm the cutest, and I am the youngest."

So she went in and tattled on me, and then my dad came out and yelled at me.

"Ruth stop teasing your younger sister or you will be grounded."

"But."

"No butts, Go play with Leona and don't tease her.

"Hah, I told you that he would believe me."

My sister stuck her tongue and jumped down to where I was and she bite her tongue off so I brang her to my parents, and then they asked me what happened, so I told them what had happened, and then she got in trouble.
