LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT OF MAXEY MINCHEW

In the name of God, Amen. I, Maxey Minchew, of Gates County and the State of North Carolina, being very sick and weak in body but sound sense and memory do constitute and ordain this to be my last will and testament in manner and form as follows: First, I give and bequeath to my loving wife, Mary Minchew, the use of the plantation whereon I now live as long as she continues my widow and after that I give the same plantation to my son, Tacora Minchew and his heirs forever. I give and bequeath to my son, Bond Minchew all my land between Redey Branch and Hollitree Branch that I bought of James Brown and Jeremiah Lassiter. I give to my son, Bond my horse Dorick, and my still, one bed and furniture. I give to my son Tacora, my horse Severly and one feather bed and furniture. I give and bequeath to my daughter Theressa one little negro, Dick; to her and her heirs forever after her mothers death or marriage. I give my negro man, Harry, to my wife during her widowhood. I give her also my mare, bridle, and saddle forever; I also give her one bed and furniture for her lifetime. I give and bequeath to my wife the residue of my estate of every kind for her use as long as she remains my widow and after that to be sold and divided among my children namely: Bond, Tacora, Judah, Clovey, Thressa and Absolom Blanchards children. To be divided equally amongst them and their heirs forever. Blanchards children to have one equal part with the rest and that onepart is to be divided among them the said children. I give to my daughter, Sarah Horton, four french crowns to be paid to her by my executors. I nominate and appoint my wife, Mary Minchew, my sons Bond and Tacora Minchew to be my executors to this my last will and testament.

In witness; whereof, I have here unto set my hand and seal this seventeenth day of May 1788.

Moroni Minchey
As told by Juliette Minchey Colby Sherman

Moroni, a son of Pleasant Minchey and Emmaline Degraw born 19 Aug 1863 Santaquin, Utah; was a common every day worker and was jovial and pleasant to be around.

He married Melissa Ann Merrick Dalton 25 Jun 1895. She had a daughter called Myrtle Anne Dalton ; who died Dec 1889 and is buried in the Muddy Creek Cemetery. After the death of his wife, he went shepherding for a year or so. He lived with his brother Frank for awhile and then with a sister Emmaline Foote and later with Clarissa Knight; then with sister Juliette Sherman about four years. Lived with his niece Sarah Frances Jones for about four years until his death 21 Jan 1942.

Pleasant (Bud) Minchey

Uncle Bud had two horses that he played with all the time. One day one of the horses kicked him in the head, killing him. He was residing in Sigurd, Utah at the time. They took him over to Uncle Jakes, in Cleveland. They had his nose, ears and mouth stuffed with cotton because he was bleeding so badly.

Verda Broderick tells of the following incident:

Verda and her brother LaVar were playing, they lived at the Muddy Creek at the time. She had a big doll, she would rock in the rocking chair with her doll; as she rocked a knock came at the door. When it was opened there stood three Ute Braves. Her mother didn't know what they wanted so Uncle Bud came and talked with them. They wanted food. (Uncle Bud could speak the Indian Language).
