Marlene Pedersen is my mother when she was young she would go roller skating at the roller rink, hopscotch, go swimming at the high school and go bowling all the time. Her first date was a kid named Mark Farlane and her first love was Morris Inaibinet.

"My most fondest memory of my childhood was at Christmas" her, her mom and her brother and sisters had many traditions every Year about three weeks before Christmas they would make a lot of Christmas cookies and take them to people. Her mom would make homemade Chocolates, homemade Toffee and homemade Peanut Brittle. "When it was time to put the tree up me and my sisters and brother would all decorate it with all the things we could find to put on a tree. When we decorated it was always clumped together and ugly looking," so when they would go to bed there mom would get up and re-decorate it so it was always very pretty.

Then on Christmas Eve the elves would come to the door and knock and leave something on the steps for all of them "It was usually pajamas." Then after the elves came they all got in there pajamas and sang Christmas Carols around the tree until they got board. Then there mom would tell them stories about the old clock maker who gave everything to the Crist child. She would also tell us about Anna the Christmas tree angel, and after that story "We would put our beautiful angel on top of our beautiful Christmas tree and we always had a special Christmas tree and a special Christmas when I was young.
